

A black and white line drawing of a giraffe, designed as a coloring page. The giraffe is facing right and has a long neck. Various parts of its body are marked with numbered circles: 1 for the head, ossicones, mane, body, legs, and tail; 2 for the spots; 3 for the ossicones' bases and tail tip; and 4 for the eyes. The giraffe has a friendly expression with a small smile and three dots for nostrils.
